“ I'm broken hearted over the news that my long time friend has passed. I will never forget him and the great times we had together. He to me had such an infectious laugh, sense of humor and an incredible personality. I loved him very much and will miss him terribly. My prayer is for his entire family and everyone who loved him that God would wrap His loving arms around them and give them sweet peace that only He can give. I know he loved the Lord and I believe he is at peace now with Jesus.

“ I'm so sorry to hear about Ken. I was the Teacher's aide n his class when he was in Junior High. He was a sweet young man. I saw him several years ago. It was great seeing him. He had a great personality. So sorry for your loss.
