“ My deepest condolences to Carole, Clay, and all who knew and loved Kenny. As I remember Kenny, I think of how detailed he could be about things that interest him. He was most definitely a “full blooded” Broadus in many ways. He had the utmost respect for my Dad, his Uncle Doug, and I never forgot that. The good times and memories from Connecticut and Mississippi will be forever remembered and treasured. May my dear cousin know he was loved and Rest In Peace until we meet again. ❤️

“ My dear brother has passed to God. May he Rest In Peace. He was a veteran who served his country with pride. His life was certainly affected by the war. May we all remember the good times!
