“ My Dad had a saying, "If you care for someone, show them by doing something for someone they care about." My Dad loved chocolate milk shakes. When we would visit the Chow Time, Dad would order a "thick, black shake." Kenny never failed. When my Dad died, he was at the funeral home where Kenny worked. When I went to view my Dad's body, Kenny took me aside and commented on the tie my family had chosen for my Dad's burial. He said " I think another tie would look better." I had to agree. Kenny said, "I think this is a better choice," as he removed the tie he was wearing and placed it on my Dad. I didn't really know Kenny but he was extremely kind to someone I loved.
