“ Heather,

Our family is so sorry to hear about this. Kevin seemed like such a sweet young man and we all know how much Sean valued the friendship they shared. If there is anything we can do please let us know. You and the family are in our thoughts.

*Sending lots of love your way,
Sunny and Joe*

“ Kevin, I'm still in shock that you're really gone...and that I'll never get to hear your goofy jokes or your laugh again. Not to mention try (& fail) to kick your butt in guitar hero! :) You always brightened up the room with your smile, and you were always there for everyone you cared about. I can't tell you the number of times I showed up at work in an awful mood, and you cheered me up right away. I'm so happy to have had the pleasure of knowing you - the world has lost someone so special.

Heather, if you ever need anything, please let me know. Stay strong, and know that you have so many people by your side who love you.

“ Kevin always had a beautiful smile. First time I had the honor to meet him was at a basketball game. I was working the concession stand and he came up to get a drink. All the dinner's we had at Lakeview Church and him and Heather would come and I would just love to see them together because they had so much love for each other and you could see it in them. I love them both and I will miss him deeply! Kevin you are walking with the Angels and talking with Jesus as so many of us want to do, but one day we will be with you and enjoying all the splendor that the Lord has for us! Love & HUGS

“ "The LORD is close to the brokenhearted and saves those who are crushed in spirit." Psalm 34:18

We will never understand why death takes those that we love, but we can hold tight to the promise that God's plan is perfect. KJ left such an amazing imprint on the lives of so many people. He will be truly missed, but we must find comfort in knowing that we will see that smiling face again. I love each and everyone of you and we are praying for you all.

“ Those we love don't go away, they walk beside us every day. Unseen, unheard, but always near; still loved, still missed and very dear. The body dies, but the love lives on. Love is everlasting. Some people come into our lives and leave footprints on our hearts and we are never ever the same, and that was you KJ! You gave my sister your heart which showed me how to love and be loved. You were a living example of how God wants husbands to love their wife's. And because of that I believe in love! Your bright personality cannot and will not ever be forgotten. With each memory I have of you it is either with us laughing or smiling, you were Gods angel.. I could write forever about you, but one thing I wanna ask is for you to tell God how much we love him and to please give my sister peace like no one else has ever experienced. Also tell him thank you for letting me speak to you on the phone and hear your beautiful voice say, " I love you" back to me on my birthday. Last tell God to help me be strong for my gorgeous sister. See you soon :)

“ I am so thankful for the Life you have given to Heather, Garrett and our family.

I am beyond thankful that Kevin came to me one day and said, Will you be my mom? I laughed with him and he hugged me as I said yes, " I have many kids".

You have made us laugh and cry. You have brought a joy to my daughters' life because of your love for her and her love for you, God I know, placed you two together to share a love that You had never known. To show others' the meaning of a loving husband and wife. To be the example of a husband and a best friend and to have a family that loves you very much.

You're always so kind, so gentle and so full of jokes, always smiling and talking non-stop.

It will be hard not having you around to hear of yours' and Garretts' fishing adventures, watching you all play in the house with one another and hearing your laugh as you say.."dude".

Its so hard not to joke around and say what I would say if you were here now, I know how you get and your face turns red, but you take things to heart with those you love dearly. .. but you know my heart and Know that I love you and you know that you will be missed by us and so many others'.

I know you died as you had wished by being placed in front of Gods' beautiful Oceans while fishing. "how can anyone look at this and not believe in our God"?

You're so right with those words Kevin, and Gods' timing is perfect as His plan for you and Heather.

What a beautiful way to remember your day that God brought you home to him, when we see the ocean, the fishing trips and think of just you.

I love you always,
until I see you again
