“ Kym, I don't know where to begin. We've had our ups and downs for the past 29 years..but I always loved you even when you were mad at me. The past year we had some really good times. We had a blast at Baylee's birthday party. We had plans to do some things on Monday, but GOD had different plans. I'm sorry I couldn't attend your service, and I hate that I couldn't see your dad. I'm going to miss you so much, but I know you are in Heaven with your mom and Dinah. I loved both of them so much also. I'm paying my respects and tributes to you on my own. I love and miss you Kym

“ I was fortunate to be able to know Kim from the time she was a tiny baby and throughout her life, and I was so proud to see her accomplishments and successes along the way. I know that she is so happy now being reunited with her mother, and I look forward to getting to see her again someday in heaven. I will really miss Kim and will remember her in my prayers.

“ We are so sorry to hear of your loss. I, along with other classmates, remember Kim as such a sweet young girl who seemed to always have a smile for everyone. Those close to her share of her fun-loving and encouraging spirit. Memories such as these are ones that spread deep into the heart. It is my prayer that these remembrances bring you comfort as you grieve.

“ I knew Kim from grade school all the way through high school. She was one of the sweetest girls in our class. Kim always had a smile on her face and just enjoyed making people happy. Even though we lost touch after high school, I still remember her fondly and know that she will be missed by those closest to her. Definitely, the world will be a poorer place without her here, but heaven must be rejoicing. My prayers for comfort for all of Kim's family.

“ Kim was an amazing person, mother and friend, Words can not express my heartache. Kim was one of my best friends and I loved her so much!! I have so many wonderful memories that will remain with forever. I am so honored to have been able to call her my friend!! She might be gone from the world physically, but her love, compassion and friendship will remain with me forever. You were truly one of a kind and a special soul. I will miss you more than words will ever be able to express. I love you Kim!!!
