“ Larry and Barbara were our neighbors since 1972. Our yards connected. Their family was our family. Our family was their family. We went on vacations and cruises together. Our lives together were happy and memories made will never be forgotten. When Barb passed a big part of me was gone. I miss her every day. Now Larry is gone and we cherish every memory we had with him. God gave us this blessing of a big combined family! Wow this is hard! But you know we still have Cheri and Debbie and their families. God is good! We are blessed!❤️

“ Larry was the kindest sweetest soul. He was also one of our best truckers. We loved when he would come and visit us after he retired. He would tell us some really funny stories. God gained a good one when he got Larry. Many prayers for his family.
