“ I have never made friends often or easily, but Chris and I got along in high school as if we'd known each other our whole lives. He was one of the reasons I made it through those years. I can't begin to count how many times he made me laugh to the point of tears by reciting a bit from a Jerry Clower stand-up routine. Chris was a truly, thoroughly good guy.

I enjoyed listening to Chris sing & I enjoyed singing with him. He was an awesome Choir director. I think my favorite memory from him was when he would look at the Choir & say, okay, everybody, sing loud & part my hair.

I met Chris several years ago. You couldn't help but love him with that mischievous smile at the family events. Chris would always have a funny story that would top anyone's and always had everyone laughing. I will miss you so much buddy but without a doubt I know where you are just smiling . Love and prayers to all the family.
