“ A month ago today we lost you dad. Still doesn't seem real and I miss you terribly. My dad was the backbone of our family. Dad raised 7 of us, Lord knows that was more than a challenge most of the time. Dad was always there for us, loved us everyone, unconditionally. Life without him is difficult and will continue to be. Its not the same walking in the house and dad not being there, sitting in his chair watching some western on tv.

I also want be able to call dad with questions to the next project I have going on at my house. I'm sure it will cross my mind the next time I encounter a electrical issue and I'm unsure how to solve it. Dad always had the right answer and fix to those problems. Dad I'm so thankful you chose mom, which led you to choose us as well to raise as your own children. I know you are much better now and for that I am thankful, However, I sure do miss you, I love you and I will see you again one day.

Your son

“ Larry and I grew up together and he was probably my best friend until he moved from Hotchkiss. When our nephew, Roger Keaton, would go to Old Slab to visit his Larry and his Keaton Grandparents, I would also go. Larry, Roger, and I tried to dam the creek to make a swimming hole, but we never got the water much deeper than a foot. I last saw Larry in 1973 when I came from Alaska for my sister, Irma's funeral. Irma and another sister married two of Larry's brothers. In 1979, when I was newly hired by GTE, I spent three weeks in the Tunnel Hill exchange. I checked phone directories in Dalton and Atlanta for Larry, but Larry had an unlisted number, and I had no idea where in GA that Larry lived. I am proud to have had him as a friend, and I am proud of the Cook and Keaton families connection.

“ I just want to share a memory about my brother in law. I really could write a few books and still not say it all, but I will start with that he was one of a kind. From the time he joined our family and married my sister, 43 years ago, he started making good impressions, definitely with me. What I remember the most was that he would always invite you to church. He was a true Christian Man. He and Sally raised a combined family of 7 kids and they were all raised knowing they would be in church. There were many times that me and my 3 boys would be there staying with them under certain circumstances, and he always made us feel welcome, and you didn't hear any fussing and fighting or turmoil all the time, and we went to church. LOL. He treated and loved Sally's 3 kids just like his very own, and he was their Dad, not stepdad. They to this day would walk through fire to have changed the outcome of giving him up, but The Lord has his own way in our lives and it was time for Larry to go home. He is no longer sick, suffering, worrying about a COVID Virus or any world matters. He is in a much better place now than we all are. But he will surely be missed. I know that in my mind, it's still hard to comprehend calling Sally and saying what are you doing and not what are yall doing. The Lord and Time will take care of some of the pain for Sally and all the kids and grandkids and great grandkids and all of us, but his memory will never fade, and he will be in Heaven with no pain, no worry, and when it's time for his family to all go home, He will be right there waiting on us.

With Love,
