“ Larry has been a dear friend of mine since we were in our youth. He had a way of making anyone he met feel like the most special person. He always had a kind word and a smile that would lift you up when you needed it the most. From early on we shared the love of heavy tunes and that carried on to our older years. The memorial today to celebrate Larry's life was exactly how he would want to be remembered - every photo on the video showed the love he had for his family and friends, and the love they had for him in return. My heart goes out to his family during this difficult time. You will truly be missed, love you my forever friend.

“ 9 months. Enough time to see the value of a person who had the ability to make a stranger feel like a special person. And no, there was no interest on your part to get anything beyond a smile. The world is a little better with people like Larry, heaven surely will be too. I thought I had all the time in the world to one day be able to approach you and say THANK YOU, but the time surprised me and suddenly I saw myself without that person that made me feel appreciated. My gratitude is counted in drops, but in the drops of all the bottles of water that you gave me at the most opportune moment and the ones you would have given me if you had not left and multiplied by every kind word you had for me. Thanks Larry, as well as the vast majority of your colleagues, I will miss you!

Whenever I think of Larry I can always picture him enthusiastically telling a story, typically with a mischievous smile on his face! He was a good guy and always upbeat about things. I know he will be missed by many.

“ For a very long time Larry and I would go see local venues and have a blast . He was the nicest person and was a great friend to everyone he came across. I've know Linda nearly all my life and I love her as much as I do Larry. He was so much fun to hang out with we became grandparents around the same time and it was so fun to see pictures of his beautiful grand daughter... Everytime I'd see him he was always smiling... I love you more than you'll ever know brother you are awesome... Rock on Larry Heaven needs Rockin angrls too! We will always cherish your fond memories!

“ We always had a ball with Larry at Thanksgiving and Christmas. As the Roving Reporter interviewed him, using a turkey leg as a microphone, Larry would always snatch a bite of the turkey leg mic, making everyone laugh. We will miss his rendition of the 12 days of Christmas! Rest In Peace buddy!

“ Larry will be greatly missed by all the local bands. He was an avid supporter of music and a great photographer. Most of all, he was a friend. He was someone that would call me up and our phone calls would go on sometimes till my battery was dead. He will be missed by all those that knew him. Fly high and see you soon Larry.
