“ Dear Laverne, May God Rest your soul in heaven always. My love to Charlie, but more importantly I am so very happy that Marion and Jimmy have their parents with them. Thank you for raising my closest and dearest friend , your daughter Charlene. I have had dinner at my best friends homes, but only you made Gumbo and I will always remember that dinner! Never had it since probably never will again!!!

“ Grandma, you will be missed. Your kind and generous heart, your strength, loyalty, humor, your ability to never judge and always love is admirable. Now you will walk beside your true love and watch over us all. I love you Grandma, I love you dearly, and oh how I regret not saying it more often. To a wonderful and beautiful grandmother, RIP in your heaven. Xoxo

Aunt LaVerne...Thank you for leaving my sister's and I wonderful childhood memories of times spent with you. I will always remember that "unique" laugh you had and the funny stories you would tell us about real life things that happened. And I will always remember our trips to Lake Ronkonkoma in the summer. You always made everyone you met feel welcomed in your home. We will greatly miss you Aunt. Love, Nancy Ceil, Linda and Bettylou xoxoxoxo

“ Grandma,

I will always remember your love and support that you always willingly gave. You encouraged me as I was growing up that I could do anything I wanted to do or be anything I wanted to be. You always put the needs of others ahead of yourself. We will miss you dearly. We love you so much.
