Mr Shook was a Great Scout Leader in the High Point Community. He helped a generation of young boys grow into strong men. His leadership was appreciated by all who knew him. God Bless the family at this time.

That's my grandfather. My sorry ass uncle hid him in a nursing home and didn't bother to tell anyone where he was. My granddad could've spent the end of his life at home, but instead, because of a sorry ass human that was only concerned with his on means. We all know how he couldn't hold a job and mooched off my grandparents his entire life. We all see your new truck and nice new deck. You're a thief, a liar and a waste of air Scott Shook. You didn't even tell anyone he had died. I hope you have a long, lonely, painful life. Karma is a bitch
