

Lena B. Levi

July 31, 1918 - November 9, 2015

It is with deepest sorrow that I announce the passing of Lena Bell Levi. Lena escaped the bounds of this earth for her heavenly kingdom on Monday, 9 November 2015. Ms. Levi was born in the last days of WWI and the ravages of the Spanish Flu epidemic on 31 July 1918. Ms. Levi was the daughter of Rev. Robert Oscar Mitchell and Ceely Hartley and was preceded in death by her sister Louise M. Ware of Chickamauga. In her 97 years, Lena endeavored to light the life of all she met. Her many decades of employment carried her through a career in retail sales starting with Miller Brothers Company in Chattanooga. She progressed to manage several retail stores across the Southeast for Gaylord National. She was mentor to numerous proteges and gave them all a firm foundation in personal ethics, consumer economics and employee relations. However; her greatest achievement and joy was her family. She was mother to two sons, Richard E. Daniels who recently predeceased her and Captain Jeffery W. Levi USN-retired. Ms. Levi was blessed with seven grandchildren, Richard W. Daniels, Allen Daniels, Terry Daniels (deceased), Tracy Daniels (deceased), Nicole Levi-Polyachenko (PHd), Natalie Levi, and Robert Levi. She also had the fulfilment of welcoming eleven grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren into the world. Grandmother Levi will be truly missed from our lives. Arrangements are by Wilson Funeral Home, J. Avery Bryan Chapel, Chickamauga, Georgia. Visitation is welcomed between 4 and 8 PM Friday 13 November. Funeral service will be Saturday 14 November at Bryan Chapel with interment at Lakewood Memory Gardens.

“ Ms Levi we will all miss you! I enjoyed sitting and talking with you about many things. Your love for our Lord and for your fellow man was very evident in the way that you lived your life. God bless all the family and friends at this time.
