“ Lena was such a lovely person to be around. The women in our subdivision would go to her house and sit on her back porch with her. She always had something funny to say. She will be missed. We were at a friends house one night (girls night) and some of the girls were in the pool. Lena said to me "lets get in", I said we don't have a swimsuit, so she said lets get in with our clothes on!. We did. Such a good time!
