“ Did not learn of Leon's passing until this past Saturday March 9th. Would have definitely been there had I known. I am quite upset that I didn't hear of it in time to pay my respects.

I am the one who introduced Leon and Marie. He had been a good friend for several years when I met Marie, and the two of them happened to be at the place I worked on the same night. Leon has always and always will hold a special place in my heart. The world seems a little dimmer without him in it.

May our Lord bring you comfort and peace Marie (and Tony). You are in my prayers.

*Love you,
Chirpy*

“ Rossville Georgia has just lost one of its best. Leon was a part of our "Reeves Gang" and Corner crowd. It is hard to describe Leon, he was just who he was.

Just to grow up around him was a lesson in life, he always had your back. There were a lot of us in the day but that number is quickly decreasing. RIP Leon and Godspeed to the Family.
