Wesley was well thought of by all he came in contact with. We were blessed to have him as one of our best and favorite supporters for over 20 years. A great person!

“ I grew up around Wesley's family at Calvary Memorial church. I remember his mom and dad so well. She had a long, long battle with cancer and I still remember going to Lane funeral home with my mom and dad the night of calling when she died. That was forever ago!! Wesley lived across the street from the Owens family on Forrest Road. Rev. Owens pastored the Calvary church and until my brother, Tim, came along, the Owens provided childcare for my dad and mom while they worked. We (Wesley, the Owen boys and I spent a lot of pray time together in the backyard of the Owen household. I'll be joining with other old friends to remember all the family and give thanks for Wes's life.

Met Wes through my brother Rod Turner, played co-ed softball and won many, many games. Worked with Teresa at Provident. Love both of them and am praying for Teresa, and the whole James family. Nancy Turner Powell

Woose, It seems like it was just yesterday that we met at the ball field behind Sunny Side Elementary School. In the 40 plus years, you became a GREAT teammate and my most trusted friend. We played together on many ball fields around the southeast. We all have fond memories of the trips that you took with us to watch the Provident Vets play in St. Louis, Panama City and the night that we all jumped in the van and drove overnight to watch Russ, Nick and the UTC Mocs play in Indianapolis. I appreciate the times that you kept me out of trouble at Talladega, Bristol and Daytona and the fact that you were successful most of the time. LOL There are a lot of stories out there about us and the teams we played on. Most of them are mythical exaggerations and probably not repeatable, especially to our grand-kids, but the one question that you ask me on our last trip to Dega seem prophetic. Why do I think that we've been friends for so long, the answer you said was Because no one else would put up with us. Partner, I know you were probably right. RIP, my friend, Rod T.

I've been to many races at Talladega with Wes. Then he started bringing along Cassie and Tracy. We missed him being there for the first time in years this past October. He always brought the radio so we had some tunes to listen to in the campground (along with his funny stories). He also usually had the video camera there too. He always had to have his eggs VERY soft scrambled. Good memories. He will be missed. Hugs to his family and friends. Kim
