Lillian spent many wonderful years on this earth, may she now rest in peace. My children grew up with her gran children and loved each other like famil. My prayers an thoughts are with all the family, and that God will give each of them comfort and peace. Special prayers for Doris and jo, and allthe grandchildren and great grandchildren. And a special prayer for Tony who was there to take care of her, and did the very best he could. Love each of you . God bless and give you comfort
