

Linda "Carole" Anchondo

December 6, 1943 - May 5, 2014

Linda Carole Anchondo, 70, went home to be with her Lord on Monday, May 5, 2014. She was born in Roseboro, N.C. to the late Omer Averette and Melba H. Sutton Spivey. Carole moved to Rossville in 1978 from California and was a member of Anchor of Hope Baptist Church. She retired from Chattanooga Valley Elementary School as a parapro after nine years. Carole was a loving mother and grandmother who had a passion for sewing and being with her family. She was also preceded in death by her husband, Aurelio Anchondo; son, Brian Anchondo; siblings, Thomas Spivey and Nancy Matthews. Carole is survived by her children, Teresa (Michael) Gravitt, of Rossville, Chris (Tina) Anchondo, of Ringgold, Michael (Jennifer) Anchondo, of Ringgold and Cathy Anchondo, of Rossville; nine grandchildren; four great-grandchildren; and several nieces and nephews. The funeral service will be held at 1 p.m. on Friday, May 9, 2014, in the funeral home chapel, with the Rev. Brian Haney officiating. Interment will follow in Chattanooga National Cemetery. The family will receive friends from 3 to 9 p.m. on Thursday and prior to the service on Friday. In lieu of flowers the family requests memorial contributions be made to Anchor of Hope Baptist Church, 2613 Lakeview Dr., Rossville, GA 30741, or www.cancer.org. Arrangements by W.L. Wilson & Sons Funeral Home, Fort Oglethorpe.

“ Theresa and Mike, We were so sorry to learn of Ms. Linda's passing. She was such a sweet lady and always had a smile. May God give you and your family comfort now and the days ahead. You are in our thoughts and prayers during this difficult time. Even though our health issues may prevent us from paying our respects in person, we will be remembering you. We love you, Richard and Barbara
