“ Linda Dale loved magnolias: Beautiful fragrant flowers growing on a tree of strong branches with sturdy green leaves surrounding their beauty. Much like the magnolia, Linda was a beautiful person who drew her strength from God, and shared His love through her life. She also shared her love of magnolias that were lovingly put on canvas by her talented hands. Whenever I see a magnolia, I will think of this lovely lady that I was so blessed to know. We look forward to seeing her again on Heaven's shore. Lynn and Dori Holt

“ I am really saddened by Aunt Linda's passing. I know she is pain and worry free in the arms of our Saviour. As I knew her she was a kind, compassionate and loving person. I will always remember every time I had opportunity to visit with her it was never enough. I loved her.

I am just seeing this. Alisha and I loved Linda. We lived next door to her when Alisha was born. She was a loving lady with a sweet soul. I am so sorry that we were not able to attend. Prayers are with you.
