*I will miss her so much. All of us will.
I truly feel like God blessed my life by placing her in my path. Wouldn't be the woman and mother I am today without her in my life.*

“ I love you so much Nannie. My favorite memories are scratching off tickets with you, and you letting me double check to make sure you didn't miss anything, even though we both know you hadn't BC you had already triple checked them. I loved coming over to Dewayne and Kelly's after school in high school and spending time with you and hearing your funny memories from when you were younger. My favorite will always be the Ouija board story, and is also the reason I have never bought one. I'm going to miss you so much, and wish that my kids could have got to know you better, but know I will keep your memory alive.💕
