I miss you and I know it's selfish of me to say that I still don't understand why things happen to the ones we love so quick. But one thing is for sure you've touched a lot of people's lives and I know you left an empty spot in mine. I'm always gonna remember you singing Happy Birthday to me and you were so proud that you finished the whole song. I am so glad that you were apart of my life for so long missing you!! “ Darlene was a lady who would just bless you by standing next to her. She was precious! I know she is singing in Heaven, walking around shaking hands and hugging those that got there before her and having the time of her life.

*This is something Funny.
We meet Charles & Darlene, years ago when Ronnie & Charles worked together. C J was just mybe a year old, Darlene would come by the work place, C J would be standing beside Darlene with his arm around his Mother neck (before seat belts) she would have Windows down, "arm stuck out the window,(👉👈) CJ was the cutest little blond hair baby. Darlene would be singing to him.
we have gone to church together off & on ever since then.
I've always LOVE to hear her sing. we were apart of The Anchor Of Hope groups. One of the best times of all of ours life, we were all like one big family. So one Day we'll All be Together again In Heaven.
God Bless Charles & All of The Family, we Love You All.*

“ I have too many wonderful memories of my precious friend Darlene to post just one. We became close friends at Anchor of Hope. Darlene had the most contagious friendly energy of anyone I've ever know. We were instantly friends. We taught Gods Little People together. Sang in the choir side by side for years at Anchor of Hope and also in a ladies ensemble. Charles, CJ and family she loved you more than life itself. When she loved you, you knew you were loved deeply. I am going to miss her, but take such comfort in knowing I am going to see her one day again soon. Rest sweetly in the arms of Jesus Darlene.
