“ Lisa was one of my best friends as kids. She loved to laugh back then and we had so much fun. Only Lisa and Amanda knows what I'm talking about, but those were some good brownies, I nearly ate all of them! lol... We may have been up to no good at times, lol... but I have so many great memories and I can still picture some of the times we had.

Lisa may be gone from this earth, but her spirit lives on through Christ. For that I am thankful and find peace in her passing. I know that one day we'll laugh together again in the presence of God! As we got older many things changed and life got busy, we both married and had families to spend our time with and we never really seen each other. I remember last year when her baby was born how happy she told me she was, unfortunately that was the last time I spoke to her. I'm praying for all of you. You will be missed Lisa, I thank God for our friendship. I will see you again.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. My heart goes out to you in your time of sorrow. May you let God's Word comfort you when it reads, “If a man dies can he live again? ... You will call, and I myself shall answer you. You will long for the work of your hands.” {Job 14:14, 15}. God will have a longing to resurrect our loved ones who have fallen asleep in death.
