“ So sad to know you've left this world behind. I remember standing on my grandmother's front porch waving at you and Wendell when yall came in, all the camping and you and Wendell teaching me to swim. We are going to miss you dearly. See you again one sweet day. Much love Lisa.

“ Lisa was like a wild Mustang. She was wild and free. She loved hard and deep. She was brutally honest. You may not like what she had to say but you never had to worry she was lying to you. She was loyal to a fault. She'd walk the coals of hell for those she loved. For those that crossed her wrong there was no where to go she wouldn't come for you. We grew up together bc our moms were best friends. We watched both our moms be taken by cancer and we have now lost you, Lisa in the same way. I pray you are right there with our moms. Fly high and fast with those new wings. Love you.
