“ I am so sad for the loss of such an awesome person. I know her health was not good and I believe God took her home with Him to spare her the physical pain she endured. He gave her a new life and gave her family and friends wonderful memories! She was the sweetest person, a true angel on earth. She definitely earned her wings. She gave anything and everything to anyone who needed help. Lisa did God's work here on Earth and she can now Rest In Peace. There should be more people like her. Wouldn't that make for a much better world... I will miss her!

“ I was fortunate enough to sit in the same area as Mrs. Lisa at three of the home football games this past season. At the time I didn't know who she was as we are not Chickamauga natives, but by the end of the first game, it was clear that she was a stranger to none and a surrogate mother to many. My family witnessed a thoughtful, kind, and generous person. I only wish I could have gotten to know her a little better. By reading all the sentiments here, it is clear her legacy will live on. Lifting up her dear husband, daughter, and family in my thoughts and prayers.

Lisa always went to the terrible fires and I crocheted afghans and would give them to her to give out to the family that had lost mostly everything. We had some good times together. My prayers are with the family and friends at this times. Lisa you will certainly be missed. Heaven has another angel today.

“ Lisa was adopted into our family when we were both girls and she lived down the road from us. We have always been like sisters. We also went to school together and she use to pass notes between me and my now husband James and we were all the best of friends. We will miss her more than words can tell she was a great person and never said anything about anyone. I know I am very blessed for knowing her and having her for a friend. We will miss her.

Lisa and her family lived with her Grandmother for awhile, across the road from us when she was a little girl. She was so sweet and friendly, even then. Family, know you are in my prayers for your loss.

“Oh Lisa I have so many fond memories of you. Not sure where to start. We have been friends since elementary school age and had Sunday school at FBC in Chickamauga. You were such a cute and sweet little girl. Years later we were still friends and had long conversations about our faith and about how God works things out at just the right time. I watched Lea grow up into the beautiful, gracious, kind, intelligent young woman that she is and I know how proud of her you were and how much you absolutely loved her and Eddie. Your smile was infectious and you always had a kind word for everyone. We will miss you greatly but know that you would want us to carry on until the day we all meet again up there. God bless and keep you all always!”

“ One very special memory that I shared with Lisa that I will never forget was when I was at work one day in the cafeteria, she came in to get lunch. Prior to her coming in I had been very upset and crying my eyes were red and swollen... she said to me Kelly I know you have been upset about something then she flashed her famous smile at me, asked me what time did I get off from work I told her she met me after work and we talked for a long time until I felt a lot better... after that she came in to check on me several days in a row, that's just the kind of person that she was always reaching out to others she will be so missed she was a one of a kind special person My thoughts and prayers go out to all of her Family Heaven gained a Special lady I'm just thankful I had the privilege of knowing such a wonderful lady I shall miss you my Friend ,Kelly Yarbrough

“ To the family of Lisa Fisher White-
I extend my heartfelt sympathy to you in the death of your loved one. I have known Lisa all of her life, as well as her sister, Geannie, and have been a lifelong friend and high school classmate with her favorite big brother, Robert (Bobby). Lisa was a genuinely sweet and kind person that always had a warm smile and enthusiastic greeting for people. She always went out of her way to speak to me and I am appreciative of her friendship and kindness. I know she will be sorely missed, but I trust she is with our Heavenly Father now and forever. My thoughts and prayers are with you all as you grieve her passing. The multitude of memories and God's love will comfort and sustain you in the days to come. Sincerely, Billy Brooks, Brunswick, GA
