“ I first met Mrs. Lois when we moved onto Hickory St. She would walk down from her house and have coffee next door with Mrs. Pauline Newell. Such an active lady. She was always tending to her flowers and mowing her yard. We had lovely visits there on Pauline's front porch. When she and Pauline came over several years later to see our new house, I told them that the only bad thing about moving was that I couldn't take my sweet neighbors with me!

“ I can't believe you're gone. I am broken-hearted, but I know Mama is happy, she has her dear friend with her now. I prayed you would get well and return to your house but guess that wasn't meant to be. I will miss you everyday. Love You, Renee
