“ 2 Corinthians 5:8 (KJV)

8 We are confident, I say, and willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lord.

Loretta's life was her testimony of how she loved the Lord and her rewards for her faithfulness is to be present with the Lord.

Loretta was my friend and a sister in Christ for many years and it was a blessing to know her as a friend. I know that Ray, her children, and family will greatly miss her but have the blessed of assurance of being reunited again.

I Love you all!

“Praising GOD from whom ALL blessing flows” and THANKING HIM for the blessing of having the opportunity to meet and bond with such a WONDERFUL women as Ms. Loretta. Ms. Loretta has been such an inspiration in my life in the 27 years I have known her. Always offering a word of encouragement alone with her warm and tender spirit. Ray , I know there will be some lonely days and when those days come upon you think about the person Ms. Loretta was. She was such a WONDERFUL natural, caregiver, wife, mother, friend ETC... As you think about all the things she was watch how that lonely day turn into such a joyous moment and the calmness that her spirit her will bring to you. Only that temple that housed her spirit is gone because her spirit will never leave us. I know GOD will see you through these times as HE has seen you through so many other times. My family and I will ALWAYS be here for you and your family for you all are most definitely LOVED!!!! Through GOD’S LOVE know that everything will be alright!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

“ To us, Loretta will always be remembered by her smile. So sorry for your loss; but really she is not lost since you know where she is today. What a blessed promise we have that we will see her again. Praying God will impart a special grace for all of you during this time. Bro. Ray, special prayers go up for you for today and the days to follow.
