“ Aunt Lou, was a very special person. She was one of the hardest working lady. She always took the time to enjoy her family. When David, June, and I were living on Sand Mountain, My family had a very special Christmas thanks to Aunt Lou, and Uncle Franklin. I loved fishing with her at Wess Lake, and loved them turnip greens. She was full of good old fashion Spunk. I will miss hearing her voice. I was first girl back in the old days, she always petted me, she called me sherry. I loved her very much
