“ Luke was a friend and mentor to me when I first got involved in the Satellite Business. I will always think very fondly of him and be thankful to him for teaching me the Satellite Business.

God's Blessings to Glenda and the children. We will be praying for God's comfort to surround Luke's family.

Good bye for now, we'll see you again.

“ Luke and I became friends as freshmen at Bell County High School. He was always friendly with everyone and had a great sense of humor. As sophomores we had Algebra together under Mr. Quillen. That was probably the toughest class for either of us through high school but we still managed to have a whole lot of fun in there. I will miss Luke and the times we shared as young men. May the Lord be present with his family.
