

Mr. Lyndale Steadman

May 6, 1936 - July 16, 2014

Lyndale S. Steadman of Chickamauga Georgia passed away July 16th 2014 at Hutcheson Medical Center after a brief illness.

He was born in Fall Branch, Tennessee to the late Fred Pierce and Molly Mae Steadman. He had lived in the Chickamauga area since 1969. He owned and operated Steadman Heating & Air, a family owned business with his son Adam for many years and was well known for his integrity and devotion to his customers, friends, and family. He was a loving husband and father and member of Wallaceville Baptist Church. Lyne enjoyed NASCAR and spending time working on his farm. Lyne is a Veteran of the United States Army where he proudly served with the 101st Airborne Division, "The Screaming Eagles", 8th Infantry Airborne Division, and the 77th Special Forces, later redesignated as the 7th Special Forces Group.

He was preceded in death by two sisters, four brothers, and his beloved son, Clay Steadman. Left to celebrate his life is one sister, Marjorie Dawson of Fall Branch Tennessee, wife, Kaye Ella Steadman, son, Adam Steadman of Rochester New York, Jason Steadman of Lafayette Georgia and Grandchildren, Amanda Steadman of Rock Spring Georgia, Matthew Steadman of Chickamauga Georgia, and Aubrey Steadman of Lafayette Georgia. He will be greatly missed by his family and all who knew him. He was a good man that will never be forgotten.

Visitation will be Friday, July 25, 4pm-8pm and Saturday, July 26, 9am-11am with service to follow in Chapel with Pastor Ronnie Millican, and Pastor Aaron Pope. Interment will follow in Tennessee-Georgia Memorial Park. Arrangements by Wilson Funeral Home, Fort Oglethorpe Georgia.

“ My deepest thoughts and prayers are with you all at this time. I am so so saddened to have heard this. I enjoyed so much being a caregiver for Mr.Steadman(@NHC),meeting his precious family and more so,getting to have met and know him,as well. May god keep and calm you at this time. From my family to yours,Thank you;and most of all,it was my pleasure to be a part of his life for the time we was allowed.

Love,

“ Lyndale will be greatly missed. He and his brother, my husband, shared many many special memories and adventures. They both shared much pride in their businesses and accomplishments They are together once again and can bond even closer now. I'm sure they are still competing against each other and both will be winners.

“ Aunt Kaye, Adam and Jason, My heart breaks for you on the loss of Uncle Lyndale. May you find peace knowing he is in a better place watching Clay ride in the heavenly rodeo; with his parents and siblings cheering and watching along side him. May you find strength in each other as you navigate these forthcoming days. May the great memories and the legacy he left forever live within each of you. Suzy
