Aunt Margaret you are so loved, and will be missed greatly. You were there for me when my momma died and when daddy was sick. We had so many wonderful visits and long talks on your back deck. You were always there for momma too, you were her sounding board, she always said she could talk to you or Aunt Jesse about anything. I will miss your smile and your wonderful laugh. Your with Jesus now and I know you were met by so many when you got there Uncle JR. and Dinky in the front of the line. Til we meet again I love you!!!!

We will miss you so much Aunt Margaret when we had family get together you made sure everyone had a plate of food to eat before you ate. You always made us laugh telling stories about you and your brothers and sisters and the things you would do. And when Grandmother Betty would find out you knew you were in trouble. We will miss that smile and laughter when you waked in the room and the camel walk it was so funny we laugh till we cried. I know Uncle Jr. met you at the gates and the whole family. I can't wait for the day our family will be together for a family reunion again. I'm not going to say good bye but we will see you again

We just wanted to say that we will miss you, Aunt Margaret. We will miss that twinkle in your eye, and, one of the most beautiful smiles anyone could have. You always were ready to share your love and your caring heart with anyone who needed it. Our family was so blessed to have you all these years. We know you are happy now that you are back with the love of your life. We love you and will cherish the memories we have with you.

I just wanted to say that the Lord received another angel and even though I haven't seen you much lately i am truly going to miss you. We loved and admired how when you were asked to do something when either at church or because someone died you were always willing to help and I loved your smile, but I know how happy you are being in heaven with all of your loved ones. We love you and will Cherish your Memories we have with you.
