“ Although we we never got to see Eloise and Evelyn often, they were thought of very highly. They are our mother's, Virginia Joyce Hooper Bennett, first cousins. I remember them at reunions and later we worked with Evelyn at Candlewick Yarns. Connie actually rode to work with Evelyn. Mom and Dad loved them and always spoke fondly of them. I still have a little crocheted cap, jacket and booties they brought to Mom when I was born. I can certainly relate to their sister relationship. Connie and I will probably live together up into our 80's, if the Lord tarries. We love you Evelyn, Lord bless and comfort you. Sweet Eloise now waits on us. She is rejoicing with your mother and daddy and Grandma and Grandpa Hooper along with our mother and so many others who have gone before. One day we shall be reunited, whether it be by grave or the rapture, we shall see them again, praise the Lord! Pam Bennett.

Evelyn, please know that you are in our hearts and prayers. I always remembered you and your sweet sister, Eloise, as very highly respectable, precious ladies. Never heard a negative comment about either of you. As my sister, Pam, commented, I truly understand the strong bond and closeness you and Eloise shared. That was a precious sweet blessing God gave us 😊 We love you Evelyn, God comfort and bless you with his loving presence and minister his grace, strength, and peace. And knowing, that although you and sis are apart now, just remember that you two will be together again and then it will be for eternity! Love and prayers 🙏

“ Eloise and Evelyn are my first cousins on my Father's side of my family. I cannot remember a time when they weren't in my life. My father and mother loved to visit with them and later my husband I and our daughter's, Brittain and Fallon, also made it a point to drop in whenever we were in the area. None of us ever left empty handed, whether it be a jar of homemade relish or soup or a bag of fresh tomatoes or whatever was in the garden. Often they would send cornbread home with me because they knew I loved it. Their generosity knew no bounds. They were always full of stories about the Dunn family from the old days and we usually looked over black and white faded photos of days gone by with an explanation of how we were related to this one or that one. They also shared their talents by showing (and giving) us beautiful hand made quilts. They were an active part of their community and often had friends and neighbors dropping by to visit usually bearing gifts of food or produce. I so admired how even with advancing years they both went at a speed I could only envy. Life without Eloise will leave an enormous void in Evelyn's life.....and also mine. We love you, Evelyn and Eloise.

I met them in 2011 when someone asked if I'd met them. I stopped by and introduced myself. They were so fun to talk with, and yes, they always sent me home with okra, or garlic cloves, or tomatoes. I am honored to have known both Eloise and Evelyn, both hard working and always welcoming with a smile.

They knew me as Janie Watts, grand daughter of Jim and Avie Watts of Woodstation.
