“ We just learned of Margaret's passing last night. So sorry we didn't know in time to attend the funeral. Our group of Vietnam Veteran friends and wives meets monthly at Park Place. Margaret was always our waitress. Each and every one of us loved her dearly. She knew all of our drink orders without asking and even what some would order because they never changed. She went out of her way for us and she will be missed so much. Our monthly lunches will not be the same because Margaret is simply irreplaceable. We celebrated her birthday with her in October and we're so thankful that we got to do that. Our deepest sympathy to her family. She spoke often of the grandchildren and always looked forward to seeing them. May God bless and bring comfort to your grieving hearts. -- Lee and Trudy Knight

Thank you so much for your kind words. We loved her dearly and it definitely has been hard. She was a very kind and warm hearted lady and our lives aren't the same. She was always telling us about her time at Park Place and we all know she loved her job and customers. We are so thankful that God let us have her as long as he did. Thanks again I know your friendship with her meant a lot to her.

“ To the family, and to the employees at Park Place, we are so so sorry for your loss. Words could never express how we feel for you. May God give you comfort and peace. After really getting to know Margaret, we found her to be such a unique and kind person. Please don't judge someone until you have taken the time to put yourself in their shoes and give them an opportunity to show their real self. We all have bad days but the good days over ride them. There is only one judge (God) and you may not only miss the chance to say your sorry but you may miss out on a blessing. Margaret turned out to be a blessing to us and I am so glad we were able to see her true self. She will certainly be missed by us. My only regret ... i missed the opportunity to tell her that I loved her. RIP Margaret, I love you. Donna and Bob

I worked with this unique soul, she had many surprises up her sleeve, you had to be (SPECIAL) to last one day where we worked... But this beauty made everyday Special fighting for survival. Some days I'd come in two minutes late to find out this Angel with rough wings had a soft heart down deep inside cause she done all my prep work and would say come on let's go have some coffee and talk, often this happened rough on the surface with a heart of Gold if you took the time to get to know her. Honestly sad to say this world makes us have to hide our true self but my gorgeous friend could not help herself at least every other day some of her God given beauty would come shining thru in my time of great need and GOD knew it and he used my dear friends kindness to help me get thru some very bad days where we worked... Now she just want iron that apron no more girls... No more making tea, or cutting lemons wow! My sweet friend just got the best gift of all Christmas in Heaven!!! So girls enjoy dirty Santa without our Angel she's doing a dance like u can't amagine and heavens sounding sweeter all the time... Until we meet again my friend margar ur just a thought and giggle away signed in tears 🥹🌹 Dana
