“ I lived across the street from Margaret and her family in the 1970s-1980s and she was also my music teacher in junior high. She was always very gracious to me as a neighbor and tolerant of me as a student and I remember her with fondness.

Margaret was such a people person. So helpful in many ways to the people around her and in the community. What an awesome tribute to know that she put a smile on so many people's faces. Her giving attitude is an example to us all.

“Aunt Margaret, I loved you so much you were the only Aunt that that lived near me. I remember the weekend you took me to U.T. and I stayed in the dorm with you and Evelyn. You were my hero that I looked up to. I know you are now in Heaven singing with family and Angel's. I know I will see you again and looking forward to singing.
