“ I have known Margie Dean all my life because she was momma's niece. She was a great match-maker because she introduced me to a beautiful lady over twenty-seven years ago, who became my loving wife. Margie Dean was proud of herself for being the great match-maker that she was. Marie and I stood at her bedside on Saturday, June 6, for two hours holding her hand and talking to her. The following evening she went home to be with the Lord,. You will be missed Margie Dean. We love you very much. You did good.
