

Margie Hollingsworth Lassetter

April 7, 1935 - June 14, 2016

Margie H. Lassetter passed away Tuesday, June 14, 2016, in Fort Oglethorpe, Georgia, at the age of 81. Mrs. Lassetter was born in Coalmont, Tennessee, but was raised and lived her entire life in Rossville, Georgia; she attended Rossville High School and the University of Tennessee at Chattanooga.

Mrs. Lassetter was preceded in death by her parents, Edna Hollingsworth and William Briner Hollingsworth, her husband, J. Reid Lassetter, her son, Russell B. Lassetter, her siblings, Harry George Hollingsworth, Bill (Laura) Hollingsworth, Pearl Guest, Reuben (Alice) Hollingsworth, Roy (Eva) Hollingsworth, Lewis (Doris) Hollingsworth, Albert Hollingsworth, and infant twins, Jan and Ann Hollingsworth.

Mrs. Lassetter is survived by her daughters, Mardi L. Mason and Amei (Brian) Luffman, her two grandchildren, Thomas and Lily, and extended family.

Mrs. Lassetter particularly enjoyed traveling America in order to be so lucky as to marvel at its wonders with her own eyes, camping with the family, flower walking, reading and eating BBQ from Bailey's in Ringgold. The Atlanta Braves were her favorite sports team. In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to Chattanooga Nature Center at reflectionriding.org in Margie's name.

Funeral services will be held at 1:00 p.m. on Monday, June 20, 2016 in the chapel of Wilson Funeral Home. Interment will follow in Tennessee-Georgia Memorial Park. Family will receive friends on Sunday from 3-7 p.m. and until time of service on Monday. Arrangements are by W.L. Wilson & Sons Funeral Home- Fort Oglethorpe, Georgia.

“*I have always loved Aunt Margie's sense of humor and caring heart. I have enjoyed the copies of the family photos that she made for us and her stories (usually funny) of the family members. We really enjoyed our last visit with her. We will miss her.
