

Margie Willene Reynolds

August 25, 1929 - November 19, 2014

Margie Willene Long Reynolds, 85, of High Point, GA, died at her home on November 19, 2014, surrounded by her family.

Her health had declined steadily over the past several years. She was born in Highland Park on August 25, 1929, the daughter of Richard and Amy Blankenship Long. As an only child, Willene grew up feeling particularly close to her dozens of cousins (many of whom preceded her in death). Her family attended the Gospel Tabernacle under the ministry of Rev. T. Perry Brannon. Willene attended Highland Park Elementary School, Eastside Junior High and was in the 1947 Graduating Class of Central High School (which has continued having annual class reunions for decades). After graduating from high school, Willene worked at the Davenport Hosiery Mill, where she met David Reynolds, whom she married on February 4, 1950. They then moved into the house in Brainerd which they and their relatives had constructed, and in which they raised their four children. In 1977, they acquired a farm in High Point, GA, where she lived for the remainder of her life. Willene was an accomplished artist and china-painter and retired from Olan Mills after 18 years there as a glare artist. She loved her church, vegetable and flower gardening, long drives in the country, the beauty of the changing seasons, family genealogy and being "MiMi" to her grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

Willene had been a member of Westminster Presbyterian Church since 1958 and New City Fellowship from before the merger of the two congregations up until the time of her death. She supported the work of a number of missionaries and was very involved in Widows Harvest Ministries in her later years. Willene was preceded in death by her parents and former husband, David E. Reynolds.

Willene is survived by sons Rickey Dwain Reynolds, Sr. (Kim), Terry David Reynolds (Nancy), Roddy Alan Reynolds (Julie) and daughter Margie Jean Reynolds Gardner (David), 13 grandchildren and 15 great-grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held at 2:30 p.m. Sunday, November 23, 2014 in the Fort Oglethorpe Chapel. Burial will be private. The family will receive friends after 2 p.m. Saturday and prior to the service on Sunday at the funeral home. In lieu of flowers, donations can be made in her memory to New City Fellowship (2424 E 3rd St, Chattanooga, TN 37404), Widows Harvest Ministry (P.O. Box 2307, Chattanooga, TN 37409) or Des and Lynne Harper of Operation Mobilization (PO Box 444, Tyrone, GA 30290-0444).

“ Just a few words about Mrs. Willene. She was a very sweet, attractive, and gracious lady. She never forgot anyone's birthday. I called her the birthday lady. She will be greatly missed but I know she is resting right now in the the arms of JESUS. I know you all loved her, but God loved her more.
May God Bless the Reynolds Family.

“ Margie & Boys,
So sorry to read about your Mom's passing away. I have some wonderful memories of her when we all attended Westminster. As I recently lost my husband Ted, I know that grieving is a natural thing. The blessing is that you all, as we do, have the knowledge that our loved ones are rejoicing now in Heaven.
God bless all of you and know that we love you.

“ We are very sorry to learn about your Mom's passing.
I remember your Dad helped save the life of our next door neighbor when he lost his hand in the mower accident.
Sorrin, your Great Dane would pick the lock on your gate and come over to visit with us.
Your Mom was a wonderful lady and neighbor.
Our most sincere condolences on your loss.

“ We are so happy that Willene's health problems are now over, and she is praising God in the heavens. She will be greatly missed by all of us.
One of my fondest memories is coming out to your place for our Third Grade Prairie Days. You were so hospitable and friendly to all of us. It's not everyday that you find someone willing to invite 90 people over for a "prairie experience". Our prayers go with you during this difficult time. Pat and John

“ When I came to TN back in 1974, I tought Mrs. Reynolds, daughter, Margie. She and I became friends. I went back to WV to finish my degree. I then came to TN for vacation and decided to stay in TN. That was in 1978. The Reynolds family took me in until I was able to get my own apartment. I will never forget their hospitality and friendship. I had no family in TN and I felt them as a family. I will miss you Mrs. Reynolds. I still have a plate she painted me. Love to all of the Reynolds.

“ I remember going to her wonderful country home and her making me feel so welcome back in the 1980's. Her gift for painting plates and pitchers was really a work of art. Such talent that I envied! I ran into her about 3 years ago and she still remembered me. What a sweet, gracious lady. Rest In Peace.
