My sincerest condolences to Terri, Mark and to their families.

Maria Sidaras Duncan will forever hold a very special place in my heart. I knew her back in the early 80s. My family and I live now in central PA and are once again moving. While packing countless plastic bins, I came across a Bible that once belonged to Maria Sidaras, her name on the cover. She had given this Bible to me in November, 1983, with a very heartfelt and special note within.

I only recently found out that she had passed, and it is with a humble sadness that I learn this. But I know she is celebrating in Heaven and will be rejoined with her family in the coming age.

Maria was the kindest person I had ever known, and though I lost touch with her in the mid 80s, her indelible image and Christ-like love have been a huge part of me since. Her love for and obedience to Jesus Christ were obvious with her every breath.

“ Mark and Terri,

You had such a wonderful mother and we were blessed to have met her when we did. Our children were just a couple of the many, many children she watch over. She was a blessing to all of us that were able to know her. She had such a wonderful heart. She was loved by all who knew her. She will always be in our hearts, because she was always in our thoughts and prayers.

With our love and prayers,
