“ Marianne was a fine person. I have known her since I was a little kid. I remember her picking up Matthew, Mark and myself up from the bus stop and giving us a ride home. She was always there for us neighborhood kids. I just got my Christmas card from her Thursday of this week. One of the last times I went to her house she answered the door and had her Alabama football pj pants on and was getting ready for the game. I love Alabama football and she did as well. At the funeral today it touched my hear to hear Elvis' "Amazing Grace". She so loved Elvis. I am very sorry for your loss Matthew and Bella. I know she loved you both very much. I know God will smile at her every day. I pray for positive healing for all of her family and friends. We will miss your Marianne.
