She was an awesome Christian woman. Very kind, sweet. loving, warm and caring person. She was like a 2nd mom to me. I have dreaded this day but knew it would come someday. . It's hard losing such a wonderful person. Our eyes may be filled with tears and our hearts very heavy..but she is rejoicing now that she has gone home to meet her Savior and her loved ones that had gone on before her. It is us that are left behind that grieve and miss her dearly. But i am thankful I will get to see her again one day. I just ask God to please tell her how much she was loved and how much she will be missed by us.

“ Aunt Marie, You were my second mother. I will always cherish the memories of our travels together with you and Uncle James. You were a true Christian. I will see you again soon in Heaven for sure. Have fun with Dad and all the others. Love, your nephew, Tony Carter, Anchorage, Alaska.

Growing up, I think we all have someone who was a huge influence. A favorite aunt...favorite cousin...Last night I lost one of those people. My Aunt Marie was a good Christian lady and a fabulous cook! When I was around 9 years old, she and Uncle James would pick me up every Sunday morning and take me to church with them. After church, I would go home with them and eat an incredible Sunday dinner...like clockwork. There was hardly a Sunday that I missed not spending the day with my sweet aunt and her family. While the loss is sad for everyone left behind, I smile in knowing that she and my Dad (Robert) are more than likely sitting around a big table with other family members in heaven having an incredible visit along with delicious Sunday dinner. Rest in peace sweet aunt...until we meet again. Love your niece, Vicki Carter- Nashville, Tennessee
