“ Dear Tommy,

I am sorry to hear about your mom. She was a precious lady and so proud of you. May the memories of wonderful times you shared together bring you warmth and smiles and strength.. She is pain free and is glorifying our Lord. She would want you to continue doing the things that bring you joy....that's the way moms are. Remember, our Lord God is always beside you, and He WILL see you through the darkest of days. I am remembering you and your family in prayer.
