“ I and my family have known her and her family many years and she was always a kind and good friend to us. We always enjoyed being around her. She loved her church family and was always involved with everything there. I kept in touch with her and always enjoyed talking with her. I will miss her. But also, I rejoice that she is in Heaven, pain free, and with Kelly and my daughter Kerry.

“ Martha (along with Leon) are very special friends. Anytime David and I visited the sick in the hospital or at their home, Martha and Leon had already been there. David created a rope holder award at church, and no one deserved it more than them. (Acts 9:23-25) They were truly supporters of their church family. So many precious memories of this beautiful lady. We weep, but we rejoice that she is home free from pain. Love to each of the family! David and Dottie Pickard
