“ I have so many wonderful memories of my childhood days with the Wallace clan, and especially fun times at Bobby & Martha's home. The cousins always had a blast. Lots of card playing, churning ice cream the old fashioned way, picking blueberries, holiday celebrations, catching fireflies in jars. I loved being around Martha - she was a hoot, a real party girl. I've so enjoyed seeing the photographs posted of Martha and especially ones I've never seen with her brother Charles, my father. Even though our visits are very far apart, know that I think of my Tennessee and Georgia relatives often. I wish I could have been with you during this time as you put Martha to rest. Sending all my love.

“ I’ll always remember playing cards with Martha! Whenever I went home with Tracey from college, we’d play for hours! Whenever I hear the theme song from Beverly Hills Cop, I will picture Martha riding in my car, t-tops out, bass bumping and Martha seat dancing! She had such a fun spirit! ❤️
