“ My wonderful husband loved me with a depth I have never known. He kept me in stitches and always going somewhere to learn something new. He loved this farming life he came to so late in life. He loved God and he loved his children fiercely. He played all kinds of musical instruments and sang about his faith with sincerity. Our Border Collie, Ace, completely won his heart. He and Ace were the best of buds and enjoyed bluegrass music together. Fly high my lovely best friend. I miss you desperately.

“ Such a happy person with a great sense of humor. He loved his family and friends and will be greatly missed by all. He may be gone from this life but he will not be forgotten. Memories last a lifetime. He is dancing and singing on those streets of gold and will be there to greet his loved ones when they arrive.

“ How do I start, Marvin Lee has been in my life since I was born. He was the older brother I never had. He was a blessing to myself and my family. He was a wonderful man and Christian. My heart breaks for the family and it rejoices knowing I will see him again.

Scott Scarbrough - March 28, 2018 at 01:39 PM

“ I never got the chance to meet Marvin in person, although I live here in Chickamauga as well. We met on Facebook of all places. I had just moved here and was looking for local help and met him. He was always willing to help or answer questions and even had me message Shellee about my chickens. I loved his posts. He seemed very happy and loved sharing especially his food posts! I was shocked and saddened by his passing. My thoughts and prayers go to all his family and friends. My heart especially hurts for Susan. Susan you will be in my thoughts and prayers. ~Donna Scott
