“ I met Marvin when him and Carolyn were owners of Warebranch Market. And once you met him, you automatically felt like you had known him all of your life! He was always laughing and aggravating everybody. Such a sweet man. I'll always remember the Dumb old Alabama Ape he had in the window of the store! All my love to Carolyn and all of his girls! Prayers for comfort during this difficult time.

He always loved when you came to the house. You two would pick on each other the whole time. He thought the world of you and Wendy.

I have been trying to find my cousins in Ringgold for years and tonight I suddenly remembered that my cousin's name was Marvin Payne Jr. I looked him up and discovered that he passed only a month ago. My condolences to you all. I would like to reestablish contact with my Aunt Ruth's children and grandchildren. I am Loyd Crowe's (Ruth Payne's youngest brother) daughter Joleen Crowe Steele of 3099 Springer Road, Placerville, CA 95667. I last visited you all in 1985 or 1986. When Marvin walked into "Bubbles" house I almost passed out because he was the spitting image of my Dad. My love to you all.
