“ Gonna miss you lady. Over the past few years you became a very dear friend of mine and became apart of my family. I never thanked you enough for what all you done for me. I don't think there could've ever been enough thanks given. I just hope you knew that I loved you and you were very special to me. You helped me in more ways than you could've ever imagined and you will always be close to my heart and in my thoughts. I'm just thankful for the blessing to have had the opportunity to know you, to become friends with you, to work for you and to become close to you. May God bless you and keep you with him always . You truly deserve it. I love you Ms. Kat and I will miss you. God bless the family and you are in my thoughts and prayers.

“ Katheryn was a very special friend to our mother, Odell Jackson. She did her hair for many years. Katheryn loved the turnip greens that she took her. Going to the beauty shop became hard for both of them. Our mother died in November at the age of 100, she always thought about Katheryn. We are sorry for your loss. She always talked about her children and grandchildren.
