“ Maryevelyn was such a joy and was always smiling. She always made you feel good about yourself and would cheer you up just with her laughter and hugs. She was a one of a kind that the world desperately needs more of. We talked frequently and she always kept in touch... And genuinely cared. I will miss her, and the world will miss the joy she brought in it. If Heaven had any chance to become a better place: I know her presence could do just that. SO SO many of us will miss her dearly. But , I hope her unconditional love , joy and happiness will continue through us that she gave it to. I for one will keep her spirit alive as much as I can. I loved her so much!!! RIP now Dear sweet aunt... Your struggles here on Earth are finally over and you are now forever free of any sicknesses, sorrow or pain!!! And this is a day to celebrate that For YOU!! And, I hope that your Mansion in the sky is filled with many puppies and dogs, as you loved them so much. I love you Aunt Maryevelyn!!!
