“ 23 years ago I came to meet you and Pa for the first time. The smile and hug you gave me cemented the wish to become part of your family. You got us in church, was there when our baby daughter get baptized, watched two of the three get married, grandbabies born, broken hearts and loss of loved ones. Through it all you would say, “His plan is not our own. We are selfish and want to keep them forever but they deserve to be with Jesus. We have to let them go.” Never thought I would have to let you go, beautiful! I love and miss you already!

“ God alone could of arranged for a Georgia Peach and a California girl to meet, and bond over years of prayers and family story times. Letters, cards, gifts but greatest gift we gave each other was unconditional love a prayer. God knew I needed you Mary Ellen and I cant wait till Suppertime! Know too, I'll continue to pray for Chapman family. God bless and keep you, may His face shine upon you and may He continue to bind you all together in Him.
