“Mary loved to lend me books, we liked to talk about them together. My favorite trip with her was to Elijah GA in their van. As we walked the town, Mary would hold my hand & just enjoy the sights. She enjoyed the moment and never complained. I will miss you Mary. Love Roxanne & Rex Carroll

“My thoughts and prayers are with C.L and family. Mary meant so much to me growing up. I remember when we all attended Ridgecrest Baptist Church together. She was my someone i looked up to. She and C.L. wanted so badly to come to my 1991 wedding, but she wouldnt leave her dog who was about to give birth. Lucky for me, the puppies made an early morning arrival and she and C.L. drove the 5 hrs south and made just in time. She even named one of them Beth. I rest assured in knowing I will see her again.

“ My sweet aunt Mary. You were my dad's second oldest sister and you were always smiling and always complimentary. I remember a soft spoken and encouraging woman. Her faith in Christ shined in every word and action.

Memories of loved ones are all we have and they help fill the emptiness for those of us left behind.

I never say goodbye just see you later. Until we meet again Aunt Mary I will miss you. God's peace and good memories.

C.L and family...I am so sorry but I will not be at the visitation or the funeral. We will be in Minnesota visiting my mother n law who is 85 and in poor health. You are in my prayers and my on my mind.
