“ My Nanny was the best grandmother anybody could have. She would make the best chicken and dumplings ever! Her house was always filled with all of the grandkids. When all the grandkids were there nanny and papaw were the happiest. I miss you Nanny! I know you are in a better place . Thank you for being my grandmother and loving us like your own. Angie

“ My Nanny was always ready to cook you something the minute you walked in the door. She was always the one I called when I had insomnia and she would sit and talk to me for hours because she also was awake. She will be missed dearly but I know that she is now at peace and with my papaw up in Heaven. The Lord has blessed me with the most amazing grandparents anyone could ever have. Love and miss you Nanny!!

Aunt Mary Ruth was a loving caring person. When I was eight years old I fell off my bike and hurt myself. She came over to our house and made potato soup for me. Such a small thing meant the world to me. She will be missed.

She would make us sit around with the Hymn song book and sing for hours. My Mama said she made the best dumplings ever when I make mine so bad I always think I am going to call her. I am sorry I waited to late. Rest in peace Mary Ruth .
