“ In 1994 I had the pleasure of meeting Mary Lynn as I assumed the position of Director of Counseling at McCallie School. In my first meeting with her, I became quickly convinced not only of her professionalism but even more importantly, her love of McCallie and especially its students. She made the Counseling Center run smoothly and efficiently, knowing how to effectively connect and interact with McCallie boys and their parents. She was especially good at ministering to students who needed a bit more TLC than others.

Over the years Mary Lynn and her husband, W.R., became close friends of mine, a friendship that lasted well into her retirement. I only hope M.L., as I affectionately called her, knew the difference she made in my life. It was profound.

Being a man of faith, I honestly believe that while her passing has its own special “sting,” she has now found her perfect peace. I will greatly miss her. Jim Mancke

“ Mary Lynn was so special to me. She was my assistant for numerous years while I worked as a counselor at McCallie. She was so protective and caring with everyone who came in the office and especially me. I loved her recipes and still use many of them. I also shared a trip to Italy with her and the McCallie group. Her laugh and attitude was so much fun to be around. I hate that I hadn't seen her in the last few years but others said she wouldn't recognize me. I know you will miss her. Marilyn Landis

“Mary Lynn and I first met when we both worked at McCallie School. She became a very dear friend to me. After we both retired, we continued our friendship over the years. Mary Lynn was a loyal and caring person, and I always valued our times together. She loved her family and treasured her friends. I was fortunate to be one of them. May Wood

“I'm family and it hurts knowing my sweet aunt is no longer with us. As for memories, every Christmas and family reunion comes to mind. The love shared among us during those times was like no other. I am assured there is a reunion waiting for us greater than any we could imagine. I can imagine there is a reunion going on right now. Perhaps a game of "Rook" and some coffee and coconut cake.

Much love to my brothers Kelly and Kevin.
