Mary moved to Ringgold, Georgia in 1957, making it her home for the rest of her life. She was a long-time member of Ringgold First Baptist Church. Mary found joy tending to her garden and plants. She had a heart full of love and a passion for serving others, especially the elderly in her community. Mary leaves behind her devoted daughter, Jane (Jeff) Fontana, and son, Michael (Joe Pasquarelli) Capehart, who will continue to cherish her memory. Her grandchildren, Brooke (Josh) Dillard and Barrett Fontana, will always hold a special place in their hearts for their beloved grandmother. “ I will cherish the memories of laughter, love and tomato plants from Aunt Mary’s home on Clark Circle, and the joyfully fun times had when my parents bought the house next door. Mary could keep my Mom laughing for hours!! Ringgold is a very special place and will certainly miss Mary, as will our entire family. ❤️

“ I was so glad to have met and spent time with Mary. When I think of her, I always see that twinkle in her eye, and the tiny smile on her face as she was thinking of a witty comeback to something someone said. She brought such warmth and happiness to everyone around her, and that will live on—always. You are in my thoughts, and sending you so much love.
